The First Question

“Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God truthfully, and you do not care about anyone's opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances.

Tell us, then, what you think.
Is it lawful to pay taxes
to Caesar, or not?”

The Trap

Paying Caesar = Serve Caesar instead of God

Not paying = Taken away by the Romans

Jesus' answer

Who is this?

Who can speak like this?

The Second Question

In the resurrection,
therefore, of the seven, whose wife will she be?

Jesus' answer

Heaven ≠ Earth

‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not God of the dead, but of the living.”

Who is Jesus?

Just a carpenter?

How can someone on earth speak with authority about the things of heaven?

The Third Question

“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?”

Jesus' answer

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.”

Jesus' question

“What do you think about the Christ?
Whose son is he?”

Who is Jesus?

Whose wedding feast are you invited to?

Just a carpenter?

Or the Son of God?
