Spring

The beginning the Christian life, when we are starting to learn new things and make new and often difficult choices.

- What or who influenced you most to trust in the Lord? What did you need to hear or understand at that time? What was the most negative influence?
- What do you think people expect or fear when someone becomes a follower of Jesus? Was your experience different from what you expected when you first trusted in Christ?
- What was the biggest change you experienced when you first trusted in Christ? How did your friends and family react to you then?
- Why do some people change a lot straightaway, and others change more slowly? How would you expect someone who has been brought up in a Christian home to change when the faith becomes their own?
- What have you found or seen to be most helpful for new disciples of Jesus as they seek to learn, change and grow in their faith?

Summer

The season of greatest activity, responsibility and, hopefully, fruitfulness in serving the Lord.

- Why are some people aware of their gift, and others seem to be quite unsure or confused about their own role in, or contribution to, the life of the church?
- What does it mean practically to build the church? Describe what you think a very strong and healthy community of believers would be like.

- What is the purpose of our meeting together regularly? What type of meetings do you find the most helpful to your daily life?
- How can we stay alive, sensitive and fresh in our life as a Christian? Why do some people get stuck in a routine that does not seem to be spiritually alive or useful?
- How can you tell the difference between something that is just a routine and something that the Holy Spirit is using and leading?

Autumn and Winter

Autumn: That season later in life when we can't, and perhaps needn't, be as active as we once were.

Winter: We will all face death at some time unless the Lord comes first. But for a Christian, this "winter" is followed by a glorious and unending "spring".

- How is the Christian response to the elderly different from society's response? Is there a unique or special role for the elderly in the community of the believers?
- Does old age expose old sins, or give rise to new ones? Why is it hard for the elderly to change?
- Time seems to pass slowly but we are all headed towards a certain end (unless, of course, the Lord comes first). How much attention is appropriate to give to eventual death?
- Why is death ugly and difficult? How can we help people facing death?
- How would you, as some people do, plan your own funeral? In what way should a Christian's funeral be different?
