BE STILL

35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." 36 And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him. 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. 38 But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"

“Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?”
39 And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

A dark, stormy sea with a small boat and silhouetted figures. The scene is rendered in a monochromatic, dark teal color palette. The boat is positioned in the center-right of the frame, with several figures standing on deck, their forms silhouetted against the lighter, turbulent water. The waves are large and crashing, creating a sense of intense movement and danger. The overall mood is somber and dramatic.

“Peace! Be still!”

40 He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?" 41 And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

“Why are you so afraid?
Have you still no faith?”

“Who then is this, that even the

The water is turbulent, with large, white-capped waves crashing around the boat. The overall atmosphere is one of intense danger and suspense.

“Be still!”

Psalm 46

10 “Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!”

Psalm 46

- 1 God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
 - 2 Therefore we will not fear
though the earth give way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,
 - 3 though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble
at its swelling.

Psalm 46

6 The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
 he utters his voice, the earth melts.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Psalm 46

8 Come, behold the works of the Lord,
how he has brought desolations on
the earth.

9 He makes wars cease to the end of
the earth;

he breaks the bow and shatters the
spear;

he burns the chariots with fire.

10 "Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,

Psalm 46

Be still, and know that I am God.

“Who then is this, that even the
wind and the sea obey him?”

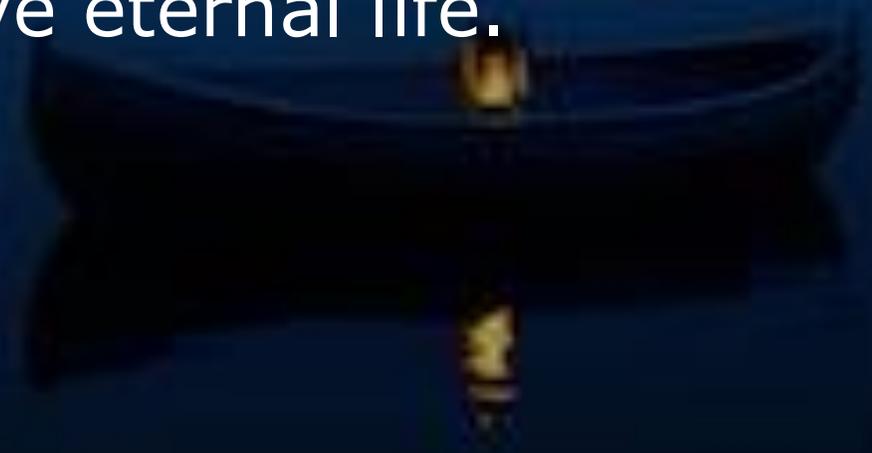

“Why are you so afraid?
Have you still no faith?”

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

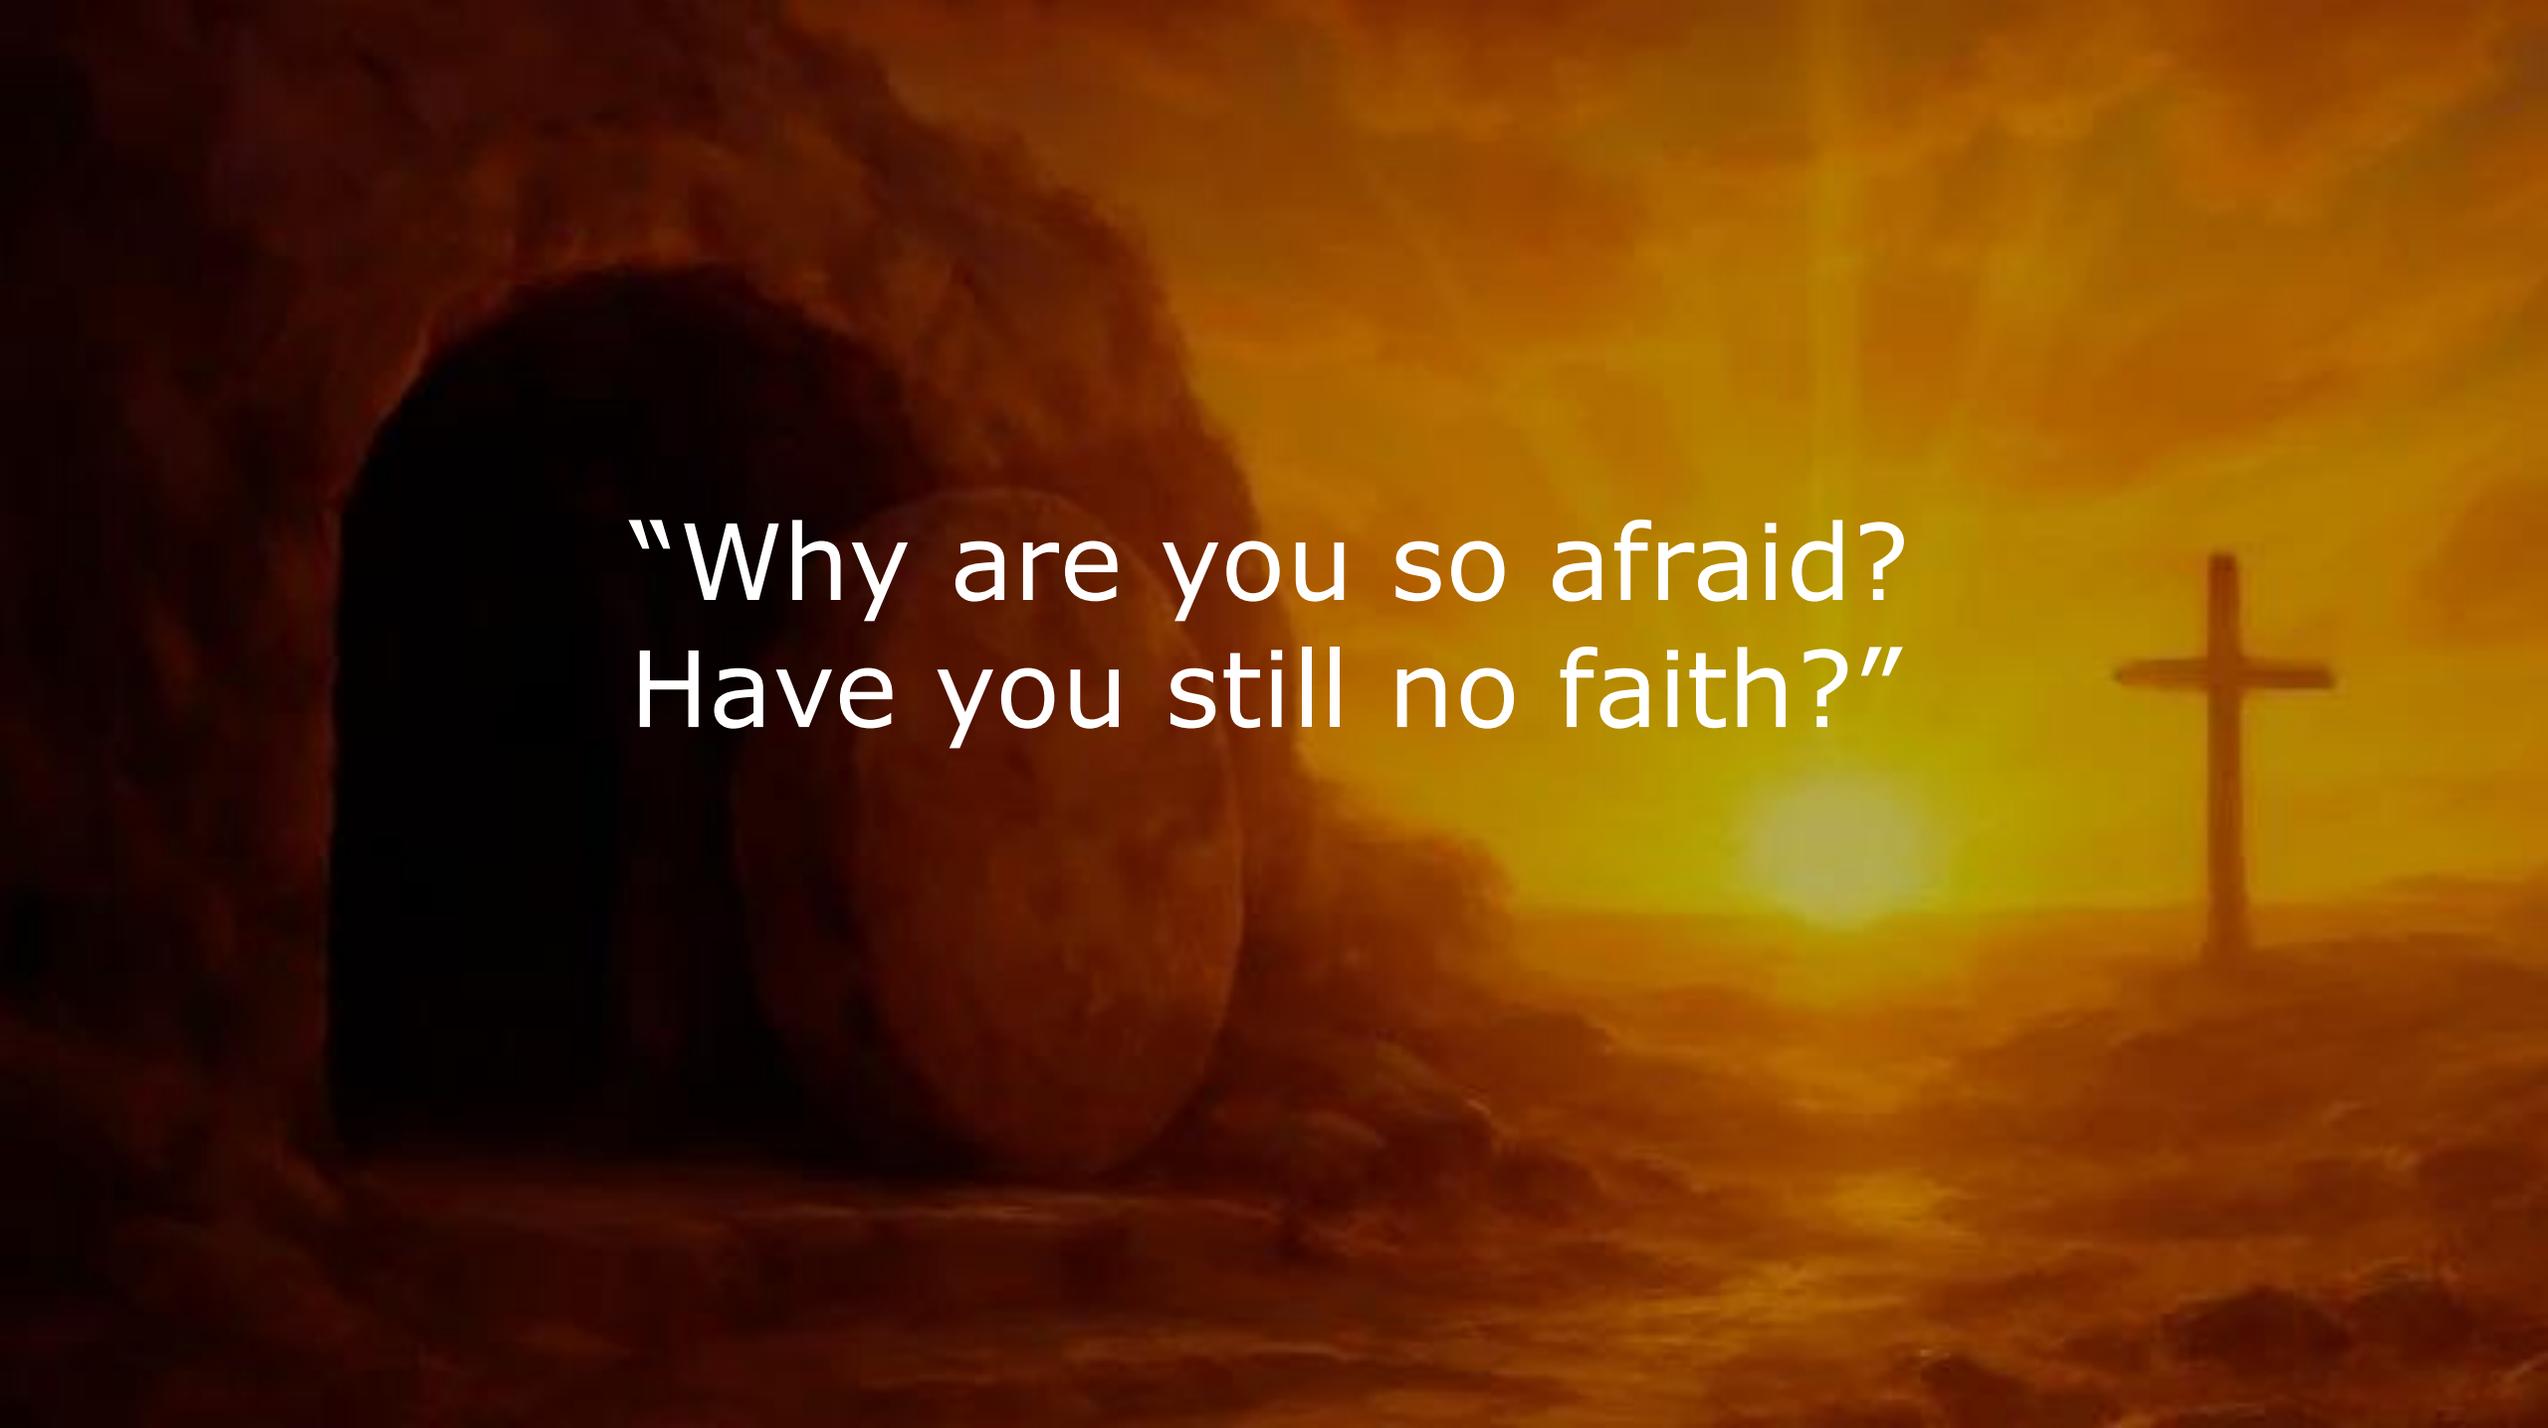

Why are you so afraid?

“Why are you so afraid?
